

HEARTS OF STONES

Hearts Of Stones are Slovenian rock band formed in 2017 completely spontaneously when members gathered for an occasional concert at one of the summer festivals. As the public's response showed that the music of the biggest rock band of all time is still popular, and because members of the band also share the general enthusiasm for music of the 60's, especially The Rolling Stones, it was not difficult to continue. We played some more concerts and so the story began...

Hearts Of Stones are not a typical tribute band. More than a band image and stage choreography, the most important aspect for the band is music sincerity and energy. We believe in the true sound, which is largely due to our blues roots, which we also share with our role models. Each of our performances is a unique musical experience, in which true fans of The Rolling Stones won't be disappointed.
